

2021 WFRA Ski Season Announcement

I have some great news regarding our upcoming ski season!

We are going forward with BOTH ski race dates this year with some important modifications which will be outlined more thoroughly on our website at www.winonaforest.com and at skireg as we move forward.

The Try-It race will consist of our classic cross-country race, and the NEW ADDITION of a skate/freestyle component. The date for these races is Saturday, January 23rd. Both will be 12.5K. This is a perfect day for people looking for a day to explore the forest with family, friends or just to have fun outdoors. There is no pressure in these races! It also is a great preparation day for the upcoming Tourathon.

The WFRA Tourathon will be held on Saturday, February 6, 2021. The traditional race distances are 12.5/25/50K. Details regarding start timing and race protocols will be found on the website.
